Presenter: Michael Rush

MICHAEL RUSH has served schools for more than 30 years as both a teacher and consultant. He has worked closely with expert educators, including Heidi Hayes Jacobs. He has traveled extensively helping school leaders better understand the operational curricula within their schools. Mr. Rush is experienced in Understanding by Design, Differentiated Instruction, and Project-Based Learning. He is a graduate of Central Catholic High School in Lafayette, Indiana and has worked with over 200 Catholic schools across the United States.

FOCUS: The purpose of this workshop is to demonstrate how specific productivity tools and services promote:

- Integrating the Catholic Identity Standards into the current Florida standards and the Common Core State Standards
- Looking at curriculum, instruction, and assessment as formative data
- Curriculum alignment to improve student achievement scores

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

- Superintendents
- Principals, Heads of Schools
- Diocese Leaders
- Curriculum Department Chairs
- Professional Development Coordinators

HOSTED AT: Diocese of Orlando, Orlando, FL

Collaborative Learning, publisher of Instruction Planner, Curriculum Mapper, and StandardsScore, has been serving the curriculum improvement needs of Catholic schools for over ten years. This partnership has yielded a deep understanding of the needs of these educational institutions and their successes.

WORKSHOP OBJECTIVES:

- Integrate the new Catholic Identity Standards into lesson planning
- Align and refine curriculum to improve student performance and achievement scores
- Develop a plan, based on workshop outcomes, to use with teachers and staff
- Monitor and analyze instruction to improve teacher preparation
